

1. What is a Linux Filesystem?

Ans: Structure used to organize files and directories.

2. Which symbol represents the Linux Root Directory?

Ans: ~

3. Which directory usually stores user files?

Ans: /home

4. Which directory contains configuration files?

Ans: /etc

5. What does the clear command do?

Ans: Clear Terminal Screen

6. What is the purpose of sudo?

Ans: Execute command with administrator privileges

7. What does pwd stand for?

Ans: Present Working Directory

8. Which command lists files and folders?

Ans: ls

9. Which command shows hidden files?

Ans: ls -a

10. Which command shows detailed file information?

Ans: ls -l

11. What does ls -la display?

Ans: Detailed list including hidden files

12. Which command changes directory?

Ans: cd

13. What does cd .. do?

Ans: Move to parent directory

14. What does cd ~ do?

Ans: Go root

15. Which path is an absolute path?

Ans: /home/ubuntu/Documents

16. Which command creates a directory?

Ans: mkdir

17. Which option creates parent directories automatically?

Ans: mkdir -p

18. What does ls -R do?

Ans: Recursive listing

19. Which command removes an empty directory?

Ans: rmdir

20. Which command removes a directory and its contents?

Ans: rm -r